The Bostons scored one run in the first inning at the Pole Grounds yesterday, and that finished their usefulness as an attacking force. When they were done the New Yorks were just getting started. The McGrawites are a team that can go the route, and they proceeded to play a game that outclassed the Boston production as angel cake outclasses does be been as a state of the Boston production as angel cake outclasses does be been as a state of the Boston production as angel cake outclasses does be been as a state of bungles each by Devlin and Gilbert, which were of little consequence.

A peculiar double play cut the Beanies down on the first inning after they had open threateningly. Geier and Tenney singled. Cannell struck out, and Bowerman whipped the ball down to McGann in hopes of gelting Tenney. Geier was tearing for third and McGann laced the ball across to Devlin, and the latter and Dahlen ran Geier down. Tenney reached second on the play and scored on Abbaticchio's hit. The Bostons made three hits in this inning and only three the rest of the game.

Bresnahan's rousing triple and Browne's out at first put the New Yorks on even terms with the modern Athenians. The coming champions made two more in the second inning. Dahlen, Gilbert and Taylor furnished the ammunition for the runs. Abbaticchio's low throw of Dahlen's grounder in the fourth inning was followed by a two-bagger by Gilbert, whose batting muse is very active just now. The two-bagger lifted Dahlen to the plate.

The sooring for the day ended in the fifth inning. Another batch of two runs came in on a base on balls to Devlin, McGann's single and steal and Mertes's single. The

NEW YORK (A. L.), 8; WASHINGTON, 8.

The New York Americans, Dougherty, Chesbro, Keeler, and all the other notables, played ball on their native heath yesterday after a long and successful absence. There was brisk ap lause for the new and old men as they came to bat. It was not much of a job for the New Yorks to beat the Washingtons, but the manner of doing it showed the class of the New Yorks. Their play was thorough and clean cut, the work of men who are away up in their business individually and who are in unison as a team, each having confidence not only in himself, but in his fellows. They played a game which was not showy, but was the real thing.

Two things made the game easy for New York, that is, two things outside of the fact that the Washingtons win a game but seldom. One was the invincible pitching of the deep chested and strong armed Chesbro; the other was hard and consecutive hitting. Cassidy of the Washingtons had Chesbro gauged, he making a home run and two singles, but the others could not cope with Jack's speed and ability to put the ball just where he wanted it. The Washingtons had great difficulty in keeping the ball on the ground, and the New Yorks had few ground balls to handle. The Senators kept hitting skyward. Fourteen of them were retired on fly balls.

With two out in the first inning Cassidy hit between Anderson and Keeler for a home run, the ball going to the fence. Pat Donovan was next up. He took first on a missed third strike, and no other Senator reached first until the seventh inning. Singles by Cassidy and Donovan and Orth's scratch two-bagger gave Washington a couple of runs in the ninth.

and Donovan and Orth's scratch two-bagger gave Washington a couple of runs in the ninth.

Pat Dougherty walked in the first inning, hustled to third on Keeler's single and came in on Williams's slam for a sacker. Anderson sacrificed and Keeler scored while a double play was in transit. Keeler, Williams, Anderson and Ganzel hit safely in succession in the third. Anderson's lick went between Orth's legs, and Anderson made the circuit. A batting streak, in which Ganzel, McGuire and Chesbro participated, and Stahl's fumble of Osteen's grounder gave the New Yorks three runs in the sixth.

Orth made two fine catches, one robbing Ganzel of a hit. Fultz's fielding and Ganzel's first base play were excellent. The score:

PHILADELPHIA (A. L.), 5; BOSTON (A. L.), 4. BOSTON, July 1.—Philadelphia captured to-day's game in the ninth inning after working hard for runs from the start. Lave Cross drove a liner to right field for three bases sending two runs across the plate.

Hugh Jennings saw the game at American League Park yesterday. Jack McMasters, the Harvard trainer, remarked to him that "Clarkson has everything." "Well." responded Jennings, "that s all he wants." Jennings, incidentally, says the foul strike rule is all right and is not worrying the batters.

McGraw's team never looks weak no matter what regulars may be laid off. An evidence of managerial shrewdness. Its most noticeable strength lately has been in batting. Not another team in the National League plays as steadily, day in and day out, and to not another team in the National League is the pennant out look as bright.

DISQUALIFIED

FINISHES SECOND TO BRIGAND, HUT LOSES THE PLACE.

Bamping in Which Many Think the Winner at Pault-Ancestor Wins at 80 to 1 H. B. Duryen Uncovers Fast Filly in Bumble Bee-Farelest Steeplechase.

The 12,000 or more persons at Sheepshead Bay yesterday met with a disastrous day, as only two favorites won. The racing was dull and uninteresting and the card absolutely featureless. In the handicap at one mile and three furlongs, fourth on the card, Graziallo, on his fast mile of a few days ago, was made an odds-on favorite at 11 to 20.
Brigand was next in demand at 4 to 1; 9 to 2 was laid against Persistence II., while 40 and 50 to 1 were the prices against Douro and Male Hanlon, respectively.

The start was good, and Crimmins on Male Hanlon immediately went to the front followed by Graziallo and Persistence II. Making the paddock turn, Maie Hanlon was leading by three lengths, with Grazish second, three lengths in front of Persistance II. In the run down the backstretch Maie Hanlon increased her lead to six lengths. The others, apparently, thinking that she would come back to them. Rounding the far turn Martin on Graziallo began to make his move, and slowly closed the gap on the leader. Meanwhile, Hildethe gap on the leader. brand on Brigand began to close up, and as the field swung into the stretch they were almost on even terms.

When straightened out for the run home Brigand was in front, and in a hot finish won by three-quarters of a length in 2:21 3-5. Graziallo was second, a length and a half front of Douro, who got third money by head.

The stewards called Hildebrand, Crimmins and Martin up into the stand, and a great crowd collected, expecting to see Bri-gand disqualified, but to their utter astonishment Graziallo was disqualified for fouling Maie Hanlon.

The Interstate Steeplechase, for gentlemen iders, proved a farcical event. Out of the five horses that faced the starter three fell. Bonfire, 11 to 10, made the running for a mile and a half, when he took a tumble at the Liverpool. Agio then assumed command, with Pure Pepper second. These two raced close together to the last jump, where Agio came a cropper, leaving Pure Pepper, Mr. Hayes up, to finish at his leisure and win by 100 lengths. Adjutor fell at a jump on the backstretch, and Meadow Lark, who was lucky to stand up, finished second. Mr. Clark remounted Bonfire, and after a long wait finished third.

Fourteen horses pulled out for the second race, for three-year-olds and upward, selling. six and a half furlongs on the main track. at 8 to 5, with Careless next at 16 to 5. The winner, however, turned up in Ancestor, a 50 to 1 shot. Ancestor in running this race equalled the world's record for the distance of 1:18 3-5. Cormack rushed Ancestor into the lead at the lifting of the barrier, and maintaining his advantage to the end, won asily by one and a half lengths from King Pepper, 30 to 1. Martinmas was third, three

H. B. Duryea uncovered a real good filly in the first race, when Bumble Bee, by Ham-burg—Vespers, galloped home an easy winner by four lengths. Linda Lee, 8 to 1, closed with a great burst of speed and easily took the place by a length from Danseuse, 10 to 1.

FINALS IN WHIST TOURNEY. Northwestern Association Wins Fourteenth Congress Trophy.

was continued vesterday at the Hotel Majestic and the players underwent another day of hardships. The strain was intensified more by the fact that play for nearly all the big trophies was nearing the finals. Though late in the tourney, many newcomers arrived at the hotel, and they participated in some of the special matches last night and will try their hands in a couple of the events to-day and will try their hands in a couple of the events to-day

The final round of the Fourteenth Congress trophy was reached and great interest centered in the outcome of the match. The two teams which opposed each other were the Northwestern Association and the Ravenswood Whist Club of Chicago. The prize fell to the Northwestern players, who scored four straight games while the Ravenswood had three straight. On the winning team was Judge J. L. Bunn, the newly elected president of the league, and he was ably aided by such cracks as O. H. Briggs, J. Montgomety and J. Hemphill.

Play for the Hamilton Club trophy created the usual enthusiasm. In the first half of the finals, the Horlick Club, of Racine, Wisc., defeated the Mercantile of Boston, and Cleveland deteated the Ravenswood Club of Chicago. Horlick and Cleveland met in the second half of the finals, and up to a late hour last night the result was not known. However, it was unofficially learned that Horlick and Cleveland, after playing twenty-four deals, which is half the match, were tied.

The Minneapolis trophy reached the final round, and though nothing official was made known it was learned that N. A. Gronstein and C. W. Still of the Pastime Whist Club. For the special prizes offered by the Knickerbocker Whist Club.

For the special prizes offered by the Knickerbocker Whist Club, there was a big entry, thirty-four tables being taken up by the player, and the session will not close until this evening.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

E. R. THOMAS SCORCHES THE RING WITH LADY POTENTATE.

Drake and Madden Combination Comes to Grief on Councilman Chicagoan Also Lones Heavily on Bobadil Fracas in the Grandstand Waterboy's Work

E. R. Thomas burnt up the ring in the last ace yesterday when his mare Lady Potentate won. Coppelia and Lady Potentate opened up equal choices at 2 to 1, but the weight of the Thomas money forced her price down to 8 to 5. His commissioners were busy taking all the 8 to 5 in the ring.
Will Shields was confident of winning, and made no secret of it. While the Thomas agents were betting their money, the Drake commissioners made their appearance and began betting $200 a crack on Drake's colt Bobadil, to win at 6 to 1. They went down lobadil finished third and the Drake con Drake again lost a small fortune in the third race. J. E. Madden expected to put Councilman over the plate. The Drake commissioners again hustled into the ring, and it is estimated that they bet a small for tune on the Madden colt, as his price dropped from even money to 11 to 20. The combination wound up the day a big loser.

Every railbird and tout in the East had Bumble Bee as a good thing in the first race, but when her price opened at 8 to 5 and went up to 6 to 1, and no stable money made its appearance in the ring, they fought shy of her and played La Pucelle, who was backed down from 12 to 1 to 6 to 1. Bumble Bee broke in front and just breezed home, while La Pucelle finished fourth. In the morning workouts Bumble Bee has taken the measure of Tanya every time they met, and she is regarded by her stable to be the best in the parn. Her race to-day showed that she is a remarkably speedy miss.

Ancestor, who won the second race at odds of 50 to 1, was very little played, and Prince Salm Salm, who was reported to have worked a mile in 1:39%, was practically left at the post.

The great Waterboy, who was regarded by many shrewd horsemen as broken down by many snrewd norsemen as broken down, worked yesterday morning a mile and a quarter in 2:14, which shows that he race the other day did not hurt him. He pulled up as sound as a dollar.

A gang of crooks was at work in the ring to-day trying to collect on duplicate badges. George Brown was arrested by a Pinkerton letective while trying to collect a winning bet of 50 to 40 from George Leary, a bookhear a bet called off and take the number, and in the event of the horse winning to rush back to the book and collect.

Trainer T. T. Coles, who handles the horses belonging to J. J. Ryan of get-rich-quick fame, was fined $25 for being late in the paddock for the first race with Hazel Baker. Starter Mars Cassidy was at the track yes terday. He had been doing the starting at Fort Erie in the place of Richard Dwyer, who was detained in Chicago for a few days.

Jockey Wonderly has arrived here es-pecially to ride W. Hendrie's Light Brigade in the Commonwealth Handicap to-day. This is the horse that the Canadians think is world beater. He will have a chance to day to show his mettle. Tip Gallant, who won the Beacon Steeplechase at Sheepshead Bay last year, is here and is in tip top condition, his long rest having done him a lot of good. Ort Wells will start to-day in the Com-monwealth, and the race will be a preparation for the rich Lawrence Realization Stake next Tuesday. Mr. Drake and his trainer, Wishard, expect to win both of these events Mr. Vanschaick, who had the mount on Adutor in the Interstate Steeplechase, and fell at a jump on the back stretch, was apparently hurt. When he returned to the paddock he remarked that the horse trod on his stomach and that the horse was heavy. As Nightmare paraded past the stand for the third race she began to buckjump, and the women in the stand became excited. Gannon finally got the upper hand and cantered off to the post.

Just before the horses went to the post for the last race, there was an uproar in the middle of the stand, where an elderly man struck a cutting his face from his left eye to his right cheek. The woman who was with the young man ran as soon as the fight bega women surrounding the couple jumped on t chairs and yelled: "Arrest the old brute.
